<tr>
<td>Spirit:</td>
<td>To add a little colour to the front of the Council Meeting room.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whereas:</td>
<td>It is well known that on Wednesdays it is required that the Plastics from Mean Girls wear pink.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
<td>The Engineering Society Executive should emulate these girls, for they are as flawless as Regina George is rumoured to be.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BIRT:</td>
<td>The Engsoc B Executives must wear an article of pink on their person, which will be acknowledged during roll call, for the entire duration of the Council Meeting.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BIFRT:</td>
<td>Failure to wear pink activates the You cant sit with us clause. Exec wearing pink must shout You cant sit with us! at the offending Executive, who in turn must scoot their chair out of alignment with the rest of the Executive in shame.</td>

<tr>
<td>Spirit:</td>
<td>To initiate meaningful changes to the WatPD Program.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whereas:</td>
<td>Results from a student-run survey (non EngSoc) were presented to the WatPD Engineering Curriculum Committee on May 18.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
<td>These results indicate extremely low satisfaction ratings (0-3/10 with regards to PD content relevance, correlated increased employability, and effort spent on PD.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
<td>These results are in contrast to WatPDs reported end-of-course survey results, which average 3.5/5 (70%).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
<td>The official 3.5/5 satisfaction ratings have kept the faculty convinced that the WatPD Program is fine as it is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
<td>The WatPD engineering director dismisses the validity of the student-run survey results.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And Whereas:</td>
